STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Hinges on the Result of the Big Thanksgiving Game.
The football championship of West

Virginia is involved in next Thursday's football game between Wheeting and Bethany college, and although W. V. U. rises to dispute, the state university team has refused reasonable offers to play Bethany or Wheeling, and then its play Bethany or Wheeling, and then its team's weakness this season is generally conceded. Wheeling expects to carry off the laurels at the close of the Thanksgiving argument, at the Islandbail park, but it is realized that the collegians are coming with a great team and they may turn the trick.

Arrangements are progressing ficely for the event and the indications point to a big holiday crowd. Several familiam faces will be seen in the local line-up, all popular young fellows and fast players. Frank Kincheloe, who has recovered from his liness, and a number of the First West Virginia iregiment team, will be among them.

The Martin's Ferry high school team, crippled by the absence of five of its best players, among them Smith, Williams and Lewis, was defeated Saturday at West Liberty, by the normal school team, to the tune of 11 to 0. The normal students were much heavier, and had the assistance of Eugene Curtis, the Bethany star. His work and that of Captain Drennen, of the visiting team, were features. Martin's Ferry's only other defeat this season was by Franklin college, a fine record.

Hot While it Lasted.

The Drovers' Home Club contest Saturday night, between Eddie Gardner, of this city, and Mike Tunney, of Pitisburgh, lasted but four rounds, but evburgh, lasted but four rounds, but every round was a corker. They went at it hammer and tongs from the start, but Eddie's jabs in the bread basket were too much for Tunney, who was unable to respond for the fifth round, and Referee Eugene Murray gave the decision to Gardner. Tunney was all but out. The pace was terrific and the crowd enjoyed it.

THIEVES MAKE A HAUL

In Joseph Weisgerber's Saloon Early Sunday Morning.

Early Sunday morning, thieves enter-ed the saloon of Joseph Weisgerber, or Market street, coolly turned down the gas, lighted candles and proceeded to drink all the liquor and beer they could imbibe. Then they rifled the cash drawer, broke open the slot machine, securing from the two sources over $50. They also got away with a new overcoat, belonging to Mr. Welsgerber, and left an old one. The same trick was turned in the shoe line, a new pair being taken and a pair that had seen better days left behind. The robbery was discovered Sunday morning. The police were informed, but no arrests had been made last night. Market street, coolly turned down the
